Junior School Counsellor

Position Purpose
The purpose of the Junior School Counsellor position is to provide psychological and counselling services for students and families in the Junior School (ELC - year 4). However, as the College Counsellors work as a team, there may be some occasions when the Junior School counsellor will work in other sections of the College.

The successful applicant will be a member of the College counselling team, comprising counsellors of Junior (ELC to year 4), Middle (years 5-9) and Senior (years 10-12) schools. The counselling team leader is the Director of Pastoral Care who is the Senior Counsellor.

Reporting Relationships
The position reports to the Head of Junior School but the appointee will also work in conjunction with the Director of Pastoral Care, with whom regular scheduled meetings will be held. It is expected that the counsellors work as a team with consistent policies and frameworks, collegial relationships and high professional standards.

The Person
The applicant should be an experienced psychologist who is registered with AHPRA. Experience working in a school setting is preferable but not essential. Experience working with children and families and in conducting psycho-educational assessments is required.

Qualifications and Experience
Registered Psychologist (with AHPRA registration)
Experience within a school would be advantageous but is not essential.

Hours and Conditions
The Counsellor is generally expected to be available between 8.30am and 5.00pm. However, it is expected that the appointee will work flexibly to meet the particular needs of the school and the parent community. In practice, this will mean that it may necessary to have some early morning appointments and some late afternoon or even early evening appointments depending on the needs of the school community. Attendance at parent evenings conducted at Junior School is also expected; generally these will number two to three over a year.
